Biblical Relationships

Introductory teaching notes adapted by Luke Johnston from the Biblical Relationships course by Stephen Wineka.

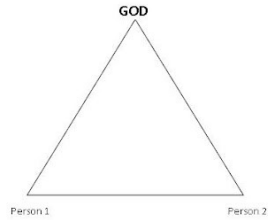

Full teaching files

student bib relationships 2 pages

teacher bib relationsips 2 pages

Teacher and student editions are components of this one portfolio entry.

BIBLICAL RELATIONSHIPS

Introduction:
Before we begin discussing the topic of various relationships, what the Bible says about having healthy, fruitful, godly, enjoyable, and long-lasting relationships, and studying various examples in the Bible, we must ask a very important question and set the proper context so we can see things from God's perspective.

A very important question…
When faced with God's word, are you willing to _____ what you believe, repent, and obey?

In the spiritually deceitful time of Laodicea that we live in, "Christians" are often interested to know what God has to say, but never let it truly effect the way we think and behave (Ezek. 33:30-33; Lk. 6:46; Rev. 3:14-17; Jer. 17:9-10; Jas. 1:22-25; 2 Tim. 3:7).

You have to always remember that God and the world are polar opposites - the way this world's system defines relationships will never be the way God defines relationships and will never be given God's stamp of approval (Jas. 4:4; Jn. 15:18-20; 1Jn. 2:15-17).

If you are willing to believe what God has said, you must repent from your own ideas, and obey the word of God. BUT BE WARNED! ...You will be met with resistance on every front (especially from your own self! - Rom. 7:18; Prov. 28:26; Jas. 1:14-15).

Remember, God will always give you the strength, wisdom, and boldness to obey if you have a humble and submissive heart attitude (Jas. 1:5; Prov. 2:6; 1 Cor. 1:30; 10:13)

Setting the proper context…

1. Remember the theme of the Bible: The _____ for the Throne / The Glorification of God (Is. 42:8; 48:11; Num. 14:21; Is. 52:10; Matt. 6:10; Acts 3:21; Ezek. 39:8; Rev. 21:6)

God created mankind to be relational creatures, so we can certainly say that He created the ability for us to have relationships for our personal benefit, but we must never forget that everything that God does and allows is for His glorification (Rev. 4:11). This means that every relationship must be a relationship that gives God honour and glory, and if it does not then it is robbing God of the glory he deserves!

There are three basic relationships found in the bible:

- God and Mankind (Gen. 1:26-28; 2:7-8,15-22; 3:8-24; 4:4-16)
- Mankind and Mankind (Gen. 2:18-25; 3:6-20; 4:3-8)
- Parents and Children (Gen. 3:15-16; 4:1-2, 25-26)
-

All relationships will fit somewhere into the three basic relationships. We must also begin this study understanding that the relationship between God and Mankind is the foundation for all other relationships. If this relationship isn't right, no relationships will be right (Prov. 23:26; 4:23, 26; Deut. 6:5; Ps. 119:2; Matt.10:37-38; Lk. 14:26; 2Cor. 8:5; Amos 3:3)

#1 - God and Mankind
The relationship between God and mankind is the most important relationship because it is the foundation for all other relationships. God created us on purpose, for a purpose, and for His pleasure (not our own! - Rev. 4:11)... If our relationship with God is not it the proper place, there is no way we will be able to have proper relationships with anyone! - Prov. 23:26; 4:23, 26; Deut. 6:5; Matt. 10:37-38; Amos 3:3

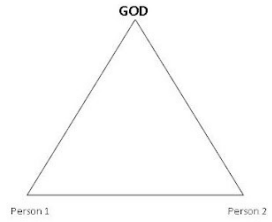

As we proceed into Genesis 1-3 make sure you focus your attention on the importance of the relationship between God and man & God and woman…

God and Man

1. Why was Man created?

-Gen. 1:26 - Have dominion over all the creatures and all the earth
- Gen. 1:28 - Be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it… and have dominion
- Gen. 2:5, 8, 15 - To till the ground, to dress and keep the garden of Eden ü Gen. 3:8a - To have a personal, intimate relationship with God

BIBLICAL RELATIONSHIPS

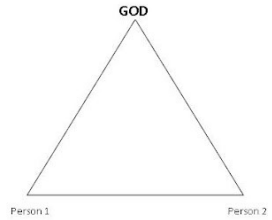

2. What did God require of Man?
-Gen. 1:28 - Be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it… and have dominion
- Gen. 2:16-17 - Freely eat from every tree of the garden, but do not eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil

God and Woman
1 .Why was Woman created?
- Gen. 2:18-25 - To be man's help meet by helping him to fulfill his God-given _____
- Gen. 3:8a - To have a personal, intimate relationship with God
2. What did God require of Woman?
-Gen. 2:18-25 - To help Adam be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it
- Notice that both Man and Woman had responsibilities to fulfill, but their first obligation is to their beloved Creator. As we will see, it will be impossible for Man and Woman to fulfill any of their personal responsibilities unless they are keeping their personal relationship with God right, pure, and in its proper place.

The Relationship between God and Mankind is _____ right away (Gen. 3:1-13)
The Serpent's Subtil Plan of Attack
1. Question the Word of God - Gen. 3:1
2. Contradict the Word of God - Gen. 3:4
3. Change the Word of God - Gen. 3:5
4. Focus on the Woman (the help meet) - Gen. 3:1

5. End Goal: To destroy fellowship with God by attacking the foundation of God's Word so that God's plans and purposes cannot come to pass to bring God glory..
The Battle For The Throne!

BIBLICAL RELATIONSHIPS

Introduction:
Before we begin discussing the topic of various relationships, what the Bible says about having healthy, fruitful, godly, enjoyable, and long-lasting relationships, and studying various examples in the Bible, we must ask a very important question and set the proper context so we can see things from God's perspective.

A very important question…
When faced with God's word, are you willing to _____ what you believe, repent, and obey?

In the spiritually deceitful time of Laodicea that we live in, "Christians" are often interested to know what God has to say, but never let it truly effect the way we think and behave (Ezek. 33:30-33; Lk. 6:46; Rev. 3:14-17; Jer. 17:9-10; Jas. 1:22-25; 2 Tim. 3:7).

You have to always remember that God and the world are polar opposites - the way this world's system defines relationships will never be the way God defines relationships and will never be given God's stamp of approval (Jas. 4:4; Jn. 15:18-20; 1Jn. 2:15-17).

If you are willing to believe what God has said, you must repent from your own ideas, and obey the word of God. BUT BE WARNED! ...You will be met with resistance on every front (especially from your own self! - Rom. 7:18; Prov. 28:26; Jas. 1:14-15).

Remember, God will always give you the strength, wisdom, and boldness to obey if you have a humble and submissive heart attitude (Jas. 1:5; Prov. 2:6; 1 Cor. 1:30; 10:13)

Setting the proper context…

1. Remember the theme of the Bible: The _____ for the Throne / The Glorification of God (Is. 42:8; 48:11; Num. 14:21; Is. 52:10; Matt. 6:10; Acts 3:21; Ezek. 39:8; Rev. 21:6)

God created mankind to be relational creatures, so we can certainly say that He created the ability for us to have relationships for our personal benefit, but we must never forget that everything that God does and allows is for His glorification (Rev. 4:11). This means that every relationship must be a relationship that gives God honour and glory, and if it does not then it is robbing God of the glory he deserves!

There are three basic relationships found in the bible:

- God and Mankind (Gen. 1:26-28; 2:7-8,15-22; 3:8-24; 4:4-16)
- Mankind and Mankind (Gen. 2:18-25; 3:6-20; 4:3-8)
- Parents and Children (Gen. 3:15-16; 4:1-2, 25-26)
-

All relationships will fit somewhere into the three basic relationships. We must also begin this study understanding that the relationship between God and Mankind is the foundation for all other relationships. If this relationship isn't right, no relationships will be right (Prov. 23:26; 4:23, 26; Deut. 6:5; Ps. 119:2; Matt.10:37-38; Lk. 14:26; 2Cor. 8:5; Amos 3:3)

#1 - God and Mankind
The relationship between God and mankind is the most important relationship because it is the foundation for all other relationships. God created us on purpose, for a purpose, and for His pleasure (not our own! - Rev. 4:11)... If our relationship with God is not it the proper place, there is no way we will be able to have proper relationships with anyone! - Prov. 23:26; 4:23, 26; Deut. 6:5; Matt. 10:37-38; Amos 3:3

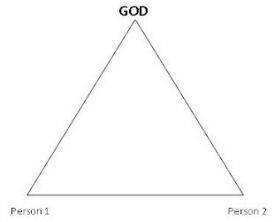

As we proceed into Genesis 1-3 make sure you focus your attention on the importance of the relationship between God and man & God and woman…

God and Man

1. Why was Man created?

-Gen. 1:26 - Have dominion over all the creatures and all the earth
- Gen. 1:28 - Be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it… and have dominion
- Gen. 2:5, 8, 15 - To till the ground, to dress and keep the garden of Eden ü Gen. 3:8a - To have a personal, intimate relationship with God

BIBLICAL RELATIONSHIPS

2. What did God require of Man?
-Gen. 1:28 - Be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it… and have dominion
- Gen. 2:16-17 - Freely eat from every tree of the garden, but do not eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil

God and Woman
1 .Why was Woman created?
- Gen. 2:18-25 - To be man's help meet by helping him to fulfill his God-given purpose
- Gen. 3:8a - To have a personal, intimate relationship with God
2. What did God require of Woman?
-Gen. 2:18-25 - To help Adam be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it

- Notice that both Man and Woman had responsibilities to fulfill, but their first obligation is to their beloved Creator. As we will see, it will be impossible for Man and Woman to fulfill any of their personal responsibilities unless they are keeping their personal relationship with God right, pure, and in its proper place.

The Relationship between God and Mankind is Tested right away (Gen. 3:1-13)
The Serpent's Subtil Plan of Attack

1. Question the Word of God - Gen. 3:1
2. Contradict the Word of God - Gen. 3:4
3. Change the Word of God - Gen. 3:5
4. Focus on the Woman (the help meet) - Gen. 3:1

5. End Goal: To destroy fellowship with God by attacking the foundation of God's Word so that God's plans and purposes cannot come to pass to bring God glory..
The Battle For The Throne!