Luke Johnston

Professional Resume

Northeast Ohio | 330-814-2764 | luke.johnston1103@gmail.com
drlukejohnston.com

Professional Profile

My experience spans teaching, curriculum development, church leadership, missions preparation, insurance account service, sales, writing, independent publishing, and digital content. I research subjects, explain them clearly, organize programs, prepare useful materials, and work directly with people to put those resources into practice.

I have 7 years of experience teaching children ages 6–11 and 5 years teaching students ages 12–19, alongside adult teaching, evangelism training, individual discipleship, and volunteer development. My work includes student lessons and workbooks, teacher materials, churchwide training, books, podcasts, video, and websites.

I am completing the Doctor of Ministry at Luther Rice College & Seminary and the Bachelor of Science in Biblical Studies and Master of Arts in Church Ministry at Mission University. Expected completion for all three degrees is Spring 2027.

Teaching and Ministry Leadership

Youth and Discipleship Pastor

Millheim Baptist Church, Akron area, Ohio | May 2025–Present

- Develop and teach biblical curriculum for students, combining clear explanations with practical applications and materials students can use beyond the lesson.
- Established one-to-one student discipleship and created curriculum for implementing a churchwide one-to-one discipleship class.
- Mentor individuals, lead youth activities and outreach, and coordinate logistics, communication, and volunteer participation.
- Work with pastoral staff on classes, discipleship, and community outreach. Connect teaching with individual mentoring and the needs of the congregation.
- Current doctoral ministry project addresses establishing an intentional one-to-one discipleship process at Millheim through biblical research, ministry assessment, mentoring, and leadership development.

Youth and Evangelism Director

Greentown Baptist Church, Uniontown, Ohio | April 2022–October 2025

- Developed youth curriculum and taught recurring Bible studies connecting biblical teaching with students' decisions and responsibilities.
- Designed evangelism training materials and trained hundreds of adults and students in communicating the gospel.
- Organized community outreach, youth activities, camps, and retreats, including program planning, communication, and volunteer coordination.
- Implemented individual discipleship and supported continuing relationships with students.
- Earlier evangelism leadership began in February 2019 and included preparing outreach resources, organizing community outreach, and training others.

Missions Preparation and Training

Mission Team Preparation Materials

Portland mission preparation | 2025

- Adapted and prepared teacher and participant resources for a six-week mission-team training schedule in May and June 2025.
- Prepared instruction on Portland's cultural context, defining and communicating the gospel, respectful conversations, anticipated questions, and the A.S.K. approach to evangelism.
- Built practice and roleplay into the preparation materials so participants could apply the teaching in realistic conversations.
- Prepared informational meeting materials covering the trip's purpose, itinerary, costs, deadlines, transportation, lodging, safety, and participant responsibilities.
- Prepared devotional and encouragement resources and helped organize plans for daily team devotions and prayer.

Writing and Independent Publishing

Author and Independent Publisher

Bible books and teaching resources | September 2025–Present

- Research, write, edit, format, publish, and promote Bible-related books and teaching resources.
- Organize research involving Bible history, manuscripts, textual questions, and archaeological evidence; develop substantial manuscripts from outlines through revision and publication preparation.
- Explain complex subjects in language readers can follow and arrange material into a clear teaching sequence.
- Prepare related teaching and promotional resources while managing document organization, formatting, and presentation.

Published works include To Have and To Hold: The Preserved Word of God for Today in the King James Bible (2025) and PLANTED YOUTH MINISTRY: Rooting Our Lives in God's Word (2026).

Media and Digital Projects

Cofounder and Content Creator

JohnstonBros | Content creation January 2026–Present

- Cofounded a Christian teaching ministry and contribute to faith-centered podcast and video content.
- Develop episode topics, organize material for discussion or instruction, and contribute to recording, editing, and online publication.
- Help develop the ministry's website, app, branding, and digital presentation; collaborate on turning teaching content into media and written resources.

Digital Project Development

Develop and direct digital resources for Christian teaching and ministry organizations. Work includes defining a resource's purpose, organizing its content, shaping its presentation, reviewing usability, and using AI-assisted tools in production and revision.

- Ministry websites and study resources: work on JohnstonBros, the Greentown Bible Institute website, and online Bible-study resources associated with Eternal Word, including handbook content and study aids.
- Deploy 3:16: development of a church website and connected-app service, with service descriptions, website concepts, and church-focused outreach materials.
- Learn AI Advisory: an initiative in development during 2026 focused on practical AI guidance, training, and written plans for churches and ministry teams.
- Tools used in project work include ChatGPT, Claude, Codex, VS Code, GitHub, Vercel, Next.js, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and TypeScript. Review resulting content, documents, and websites for usefulness and accuracy.

Business and Customer Service Experience

Account Representative

State Farm, North Canton, Ohio | October 2020–Present

- Serve customers in an insurance agency setting, manage ongoing client accounts, and respond to account and service questions.
- Coordinate with colleagues to resolve concerns and support a consistent customer experience.
- Maintain customer relationships through clear communication, dependable follow-through, and attention to account details.
- Apply sales and relationship-management experience in a service-oriented business environment.

Lead Sales Agent

Buffalo Bills Premium Snacks, Uniontown, Ohio | June 2016–June 2018

- Prospected for customers, developed accounts, and maintained ongoing business relationships.
- Set sales objectives and organized activity around customer needs, schedules, product availability, and market conditions.
- Supported expansion into additional markets and adapted the sales approach as conditions changed.

Professional Skills

Teaching and training: lesson preparation, curriculum sequencing, student and teacher resources, adult instruction, mentoring, and volunteer development.

Leadership and operations: program coordination, event planning, volunteer communication, logistics, customer relationships, account support, and issue resolution.

Communication and production: public speaking, research, long-form writing, editing, document formatting, independent publishing, podcast and video planning, website content, and digital resource organization.

Productivity: Microsoft Office and Google tools for documents, communication, planning, and organization.

Education in Progress

Doctor of Ministry

Luther Rice College & Seminary, Lithonia, Georgia | Expected completion Spring 2027

Study in ministry research and writing, contemporary preaching, leadership, counseling, ministry relationships, and pastoral practice. Doctoral ministry project focuses on an intentional one-to-one discipleship process at Millheim Baptist Church.

Master of Arts in Church Ministry

Mission University, Springfield, Missouri | Expected completion Spring 2027

Current and planned study includes Family Counseling, Hermeneutics, Apologetics, Leadership Essentials for Christian Ministry, and Global Evangelism and Discipleship.

Bachelor of Science in Biblical Studies

Mission University, Springfield, Missouri | Expected completion Spring 2027

Undergraduate completion plan combines prior academic work with remaining dual-credit coursework in biblical study and ministry.

Completed Education

Master of Divinity in Pastoral Leadership

Andersonville Theological Seminary | December 19, 2025

42 credits; GPA 3.82; Distinction. Study included hermeneutics, evangelism, biblical interpretation, bereavement counseling, marriage conflicts, and ministry practicums.

Doctor of Philosophy in Biblical Studies

Queens College of Theology | January 15, 2025

52 credits; GPA 4.00; Summa Cum Laude. Study included biblical foundations, covenants, prophecy, Old and New Testament books, and biblical-studies and sermon capstones.

Doctor of Educational Ministry in Pastoral Leadership

Andersonville Theological Seminary | October 25, 2024

30 credits; GPA 3.68; Cum Laude. Study included biblical exposition, Christology, the Holy Spirit, premarital counseling, and pastoral care.

Doctor of Biblical Exposition

Andersonville Theological Seminary | October 25, 2024

38 credits; GPA 3.55; Cum Laude. Coursework included Old Testament historical, wisdom, and prophetic books and a practical ministry project.

Associate of Arts in Biblical Studies

Baptist Bible College, now Mission University | Completed

Foundational study in biblical interpretation, theology, writing, general education, evangelism, discipleship, and teaching.

Additional Education and Professional Development

Additional biblical and ministry coursework through Jesus Moment Online Bible Institute and Seminary, 2017–2023. High school diploma, Manchester High School, Akron, Ohio, June 2018.

Completed 24 hours of documented Ohio insurance continuing education through WebCE in October 2024: health savings accounts; ethical principles and practices; annuity suitability and best-interest standards; homeowners insurance; personal auto insurance; anti-money laundering; and final expense insurance.